SOLD, SOLD. This extremely genuine and original example is truly immaculate throughout, there are no dents, scratches or blemishes on the bodywork, the leather interior is in remarkable condition and free of any wear and tear and all four alloy wheels are free of any curbing or corrosion, you really need to see the car in the flesh and especially drive it to appreciate its full merit, to give you an idea how nice this example is, it was due to appear at the Birmingham N.E.C motor show back in March, but due to the COVID 19 situation, the show was cancelled, there are not many CLK'S that can claim that sought of status. This car very much benefits from having a fully documented Mercedes service history from new and this very much reflects the way it drives compared to other examples. The car has only had two owners from new, the first owner was a lady, who purchased the car brand new and the second owner purchased the car in 2016. Finished in the most sought after colour, Tellurite silve...
